A number of bases similar to those of the British army have been organized.

In announcing the appointment, Governor Cox said the selection was made "because of the large amount of reconstruction work under direction of the Board of Administration, and because of the construction now to be undertaken on a new penitentiary at the London farm."

Washington, June 7.—(Associated Press Dispatch)—A new tax of two cents on all bank checks and drafts over five dollars, expected to raise about $1,500,000 in revenues, was added to the war tax bill today by the Senate Finance Committee. The committee also struck out all house taxes on dues of social, athletic and sporting clubs, from which $10,000,000 in revenue was expected.

PATROL BOAT CHASES SUB. FROM VICTIMS

Yankee Destroyer Finds German Sub Shelling Lifeboats and Saves Many Lives.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

An Atlantic Port, June 7.—An American destroyer, on patrol off the coast of Ireland, recently came upon a submarine shelling the life boats of a ship it had sunk, according to survivors of submarined vessels reaching here today aboard an American liner.

The submarine disappeared before the destroyer could fire a shot, and the American vessel then rescued twenty of the survivors of the two ships that had been sent down within sight of each other, taking them to a British port.

The two ships sunk were the Russian bark Lynton, outward bound from Pensacola, and the Norwegian bark Madura, from Mobile to British ports. Survivors of the Lynton arriving here said the submarine shelled the lifeboats of the Madura, killing two persons and wounding seven.

When the American destroyer came up the German submarine submerged.

CAMP LOCATED

Columbus, June 7.—Dispatches from Washington indicate Chillicothe has won the race over more than a dozen other cities for the location of the Ohio-West Virginia army concentration camp. The inspection board has completed its investigation and it is understood General Thomas H. Barry, commander of the central war department, will recommend the Chillicothe site.

SILVER BELL VESSEL THAT SUNK U-BOAT

French Announcement of Running Fight Between Sub and Silver Bell Is Confirmed by the State Department.

(Associated Press Cable)

Paris, June 7.—The American steamer Silver Shell has had a battle with a submarine in the Mediterranean.

After an exchange of sixty shots, the submarine disappeared. Details of the fight were made public today by the Ministry of Marine.

The Silver Shell, commanded by Captain Charlton, sighted the submarine on May 30.

In the running fight which followed, the American boat proved speedier than its enemy and seemed also to be the master in gun fire.

The disappearance of the submarine was sudden.

The Silver Shell is a steamship of 5,605 tons, owned by the Shell Oil Company, of California.

She sailed from America early in May with a crew of forty three men, of whom fifteen are American citizens. Her commander comes from New York.

STATE DEPARTMENT CONFIRMS REPORT

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, June 7.—The Silver Shell is the steamer referred to in yesterday's State Department announcement as having sunk a German submarine after an exchange of 60 shots in a running fight of an hour and a half.

The State Department did not announce the name of the steamer because it has been this Government's policy not to disclose the names of ships having engagements with submarines, because officials feel that it marks the ship for further attack, as they believe was the case with the Mongolie.

It has been the policy also, not to identify the gun crews on merchant ships, so as not to add to their hardships in case of capture.

TO NAME BOARDS OF EXEMPTION

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, June 7.—To pass upon claims for exemption from military service under the conscription law, boards will be appointed for approximately each 30,000 population.

This was announced today by the Provost Marshal General's office in a statement which says further:

"In each federal judicial district, there will be at least one board of review, to which appeal may be taken from local boards.

"The exemption regulations are not in final form. When they are, they will be promulgated by the President."

GOVERNMENT SAYS THEY COMMUNICATED WITH ENEMY

The three men shown in the charge of conspiring to send mail to Europe through other than the authorized channels. They are, from left to right, Harry F. Perissi thirty-two, of Far Rockaway, whose bond was made $25,000; Irving Bonaparte, thirty-four, of 964 Fox street, Bronx, bail $20,000, and Axel B. Melchar, thirty-two, of 164 East 122nd street, bail $75,000. Perissi and Bonaparte are employees of the Allgemeine Elektricitats Gesellschaft of 17 Battery place. Melchar keeps a saloon near the water front in Brooklyn.

The government alleges they sent mail matter to and from Germany by having it carried to Norway by men of the crews of the Norwegian-American line steamships Bergenford and Kristoflafjord.

GERMAN LINES ARE SHATTERED

Gen. Haig Breaks Down Barriers on Nine Miles Front Between Lille and Ypers, Winning a Notable Victory.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

General Haig has launched his expected blow at the German lines in Belgium, striking early this morning along a nine mile front on the Messines Ridge, between Ypres and Lille.

Success marked the opening of the offensive, the British winning all their initial objectives and pushing on.

Their further progress is reported to be satisfactory along the whole front.

Dispatches from correspondents at the front supplement the official report and indicate that the rush of the British carried them well over the Messines Ridge. They were reported entrenching there this afternoon.

Messines itself, a considerable town toward the apex of the German salient, appears to have fallen early in the fighting.

Other small places are in British hands, with the town of Wytschaete apparently surrounded by General Haig's troops.

The French front is comparatively quiet. The only development of note last night was a German attack northwest of St. Quentin. This was quickly checked by French fire.

RUSS REVOLT IS SUBSIDING

(Associated Press Cable.)

Petrograd, June 7.—The Kronstadt incident is closed.

The railroad will be placed upon the auction block and disposed of to the highest bidder.

WEST POINT'S HEAD LEAVES ACADEMY TO GO TO FRANCE

COL. JOHN BIDDLE

Colonel John Biddle, superintendent of the Military Academy at West Point, has been relieved and assigned to command the new Sixth regiment of engineers now being organized in Washington for service in France. The demand for engineers in France has made the experienced engineer officers of the United States army eager to perform active service.

NUMBER IN OHIO WILL BE 550,000

Late Returns Indicate Grand Total Registering Will Be More Than 550,000.

68 Percent Claim Exemption—Many Counties Are Slow With Summarized Reports.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., June 7.—With official or complete returns missing from seven of the eighty-eight counties, Ohio's registration figures, as revised at State Headquarters, at noon today showed a total registration of 533,261.

This total will be increased fully 10,000 and perhaps double that amount when a final report comes from Cuyahoga county, which is credited with 86,230 registrations.

Hamilton county's registration of 49,011 also is incomplete.

With the added figures expected from the delinquent counties, and the registration of non-residents of the state whose cards are to be mailed in, and the registrations of State institutions, which will number more than a thousand, state officials were confident Ohio's grand total will run more than 550,000.

Sixty-seven counties furnished totals on claims of exemptions. These counties pooled a registration of 260,439, and of that number 178,009 claim exemption. This is a little more than 68 per cent.

There are twenty-five counties that have failed thus far to send in summarized reports, eight of which have yet to complete even official totals. Instructions have been sent to hurry the work.

A message was received at noon today from Provost Marshal General Crowder, at Washington, asking Governor Cox not to file the Ohio report until the last precinct has reported officially and finally.

It may be two or three days before these final figures are available at registration headquarters.

STORM LOSS $750,000

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Detroit, Mich., June 7.—Damage amounting to about $750,000 was done and four lives were lost in the terrific windstorm which swept across central Michigan yesterday afternoon.

The district which includes Battle Creek, Ann Arbor and Jackson sustained most of the damage. A score of persons were injured.

Wire communication was restored today to all cities in the storm area. Battle Creek reported about $300,000 damage. No one was killed there, although seventeen were injured.

Three persons were killed in Washtenaw county, near Ann Arbor. Considerable property damage was done in that county.

DEATH CLAIMS

MRS. MARY DE WITT

On the threshold of her eightieth year Mrs. Mary DeWitt quietly slipped away from the home on Paint and Lewis street, where she had been so deeply cherished, and entered into eternal peace at the sunset hour Wednesday evening.

All winter Mrs. DeWitt had been in poor health and but recently her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Jarnigan, came out from Hartford Conn. to take her mother to her eastern home in the hope that the visit would prove beneficial. They were to have started Wednesday morning but on Tuesday Mrs. DeWitt's condition became much worse and the end came quickly.

Not alone in her family circle but by many friends will this good and unselfish woman be missed. For some time she had made the home for her grand children, Donald, Harry and Roy and had been a most affectionate mother and grand mother.

Two children survive. Mrs. Jarnigan and Mr. W. A. DeWitt now of Dayton. Another daughter, Mrs. Frank Campbell died some years ago. Mrs. DeWitt was a great worker in the Methodist church and, since her health failed in the McNair Presbyterian church, nearer to her home. In this church services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, followed by burial in the Washington cemetery Rev. Cherrington and Rev. Gage will officiate.

HORSE RUNS OFF WOMAN IS INJURED

While driving along South Main street late Wednesday evening, Mrs. D. Waters and small child, residing on the Creek road were injured when the horse driven by Mrs. Waters took fright and ran away as result of a telephone pole falling and striking the buggy.

The rig was overturned and both Mrs. Waters and child thrown out. The child escaped with a few bruises, but Mrs. Waters was dragged some distance and severely bruised and otherwise injured.

A gang of work men were about the telephone pole when the accident occurred, and the telephone company, it is understood, will be held responsible for damages.

CAN RAISE PIGS DECLARES MAYOR

Mayor Oster announced Thursday that if citizens so desired they could raise pigs within the city limits, providing they kept the pens in a sanitary condition.

He gave as a reason for the radical departure, the high prices and prospect of continued high prices.

Mayor Oster stated that he was aware of a city ordinance which prohibits the raising of pigs within the city limits, but intends to ignore the ordinance where sanitary pens are kept.

"Raise a hog instead of a dog," urges Mayor Oster.

NO ARRESTS FOR NOT REGISTERING

So far no arrests have been made in Fayette county for failure to register, and only one person was called upon as a result of the belief that he had not registered, and it was quickly established that he had registered and that his real Christian name was not the nickname by which his friends knew him. The officials are greatly pleased over the situation, but have not relaxed their investigation into every nook in the county.

Tuesday's Record

If there was any one who entertained any fears that the spirit of patriotism in the United States would not write a proper record on Tuesday or that the day's work would be marred by any resistance to the registration orders of the national government, the splendid results of that glorious day's work allayed those fears.

The prediction of President Wilson that the young manhood of the nation would march in one solid rank was literally vindicated. In every municipality, large and small, throughout the whole length and breadth of the land, in the rural districts and in the remote places the young men came and enrolled their names and their records in the nation's big honor books which now totals, we find from the returns, something like ten million men.

There was no resistance, there was no complaint and there was no argument. There was only action such as the law and the call of the nation made necessary.

Quietly, unostentatiously, in most instances, the young men came and went evidencing their deep appreciation and understanding of their duties, and their sincere desire to perform their whole duty.

Tuesday June 5th—Registration Day—will endure forever as one of the bright pages in American history conclusive proof that never was the patriotism of the people more sincere at once a warning to our enemies and message to every one in all the wide world that American manhood is in the fight for human liberty in earnest and a part of the great world movement to make of the universal brotherhood of man more than a mere phrase of pleasing sound.

The Submarine Campaign

Again the weekly report of losses of British merchant vessels as a result of the submarine campaign shows a decreased total of destruction encouraging to the allied nations.

In many respects the reports show that the last week of the "ruthless" submarine campaign has been the least effective in its work of destruction of any since the campaign was inaugurated.

British and French authorities are free to admit that the addition of the American squadron has helped in the campaign against the submarines in more ways than one.

It has not only served to, very measurably, strengthen the patrol and convoy forces but it has resulted in instilling in the men of the rival fleets a spirit of friendly rivalry, a contest to accomplish results that has brought about a rejuvenation in each one of the allied fleets. It has encouraged the men and gunners on the ships to redoubled efforts.

The Americans, new in the contest have entered the fight with that enthusiasm and optimism which cannot fail to be imparted to the men in the other fleets, who had become somewhat mechanical in the work of chasing the elusive submarine. Their arrival has brought encouragement and a new spirit of daring that must produce results.

The Americans, too, have brought new theories into the fight and are insistent that new methods be tried out and they are being tried out.

The campaign has now shown a marked tendency to shift from one of defense to one of offense.

The submarines and the submarine bases are now being hunted instead of dodged. The allied fleets are now an aggressive fighting force and the sighting of a submarine is now the signal for attack. The spirit of the chase is on in earnest now since the American fleet arrived.

McMillan's Return

The first authentic news from Donald B. McMillan in charge of the Crocker Land expedition is to the effect that new land, hitherto unmapped in the Atlas of the world, has been discovered in the far north.

The expedition was an exceedingly costly one, perhaps the most costly of any one of the many which have been made into the realms of eternal ice and snow which lie far within the confines of the Arctic Circle, but those who financed the expedition are more than satisfied by the results obtained.

One of the "facts" reported is that the Crocker Land which Rear Admiral Peary claimed to have seen proved, on investigation to be a mirage.

Just what real value there is in these discoveries is not apparent to the every day man of affairs. Perhaps the scientific data may be of great value but not being scientists the majority of men must leave that for the scientists to determine, especially as they foot the bills.

That these expeditions, into the forbidden sections which nature has set apart as her tremendous playgrounds and in which all the wild revels of wind and storm may be indulged without limit, are exceedingly attractive to the adventurers there is no manner of doubt.

Poetry For Today

THY RIGHTEOUS WILL BE DONE.
Not in dumb resignation
We lift our heads on high;
Not like the nerveless fatalist
Content to trust and die.
Our faith springs like the eagle
Who soars to meet the sun,
And cries exulting unto thee,
O Lord, Thy will be done!

When tyrant feet are tramping
Upon the common weal,
Thou dost not bid us bend and writhe
Beneath the iron heel.
In Thy name we assert our right
By sword or tongue or pen,
And even the headsman's ax may flash
Thy message unto men.

Thy will! It bids the weak be strong;
It bids the strong be just;
No lip to fawn, no hand to beg,
No brow to see the dust.
Wherever man oppresses man
Beneath Thy liberal sun,
O Lord, be there Thine arm made bare,
Thy righteous will be done!
—John Hay.

In Social Circles

The world agency of the Red Cross and its mission of loving care for all those who will need the white garbed nurses, bearing the insignia of the red cross, and the appliances of their profession, impresses itself more and more each day as the women under the Red Cross banner on the Court House lawn come in contact with the public. Many little incidents vary the monotony of waiting for subscribers and the response which meets this call to aid in the great Red Cross movement is from the heart and leaps forward in the desire to aid in this nation wide activity.

That it is not the Red Cross of Washington C. H., but of the world is shown by the transient people who seek the sign of the Red Cross voluntarily.

It beckons alike to the sons and daughters of different countries.

Yesterday it was a Frenchman who joined the service, a Mr. Malson, of Chicago, who expressed the wish to be the first Frenchman enrolled in the Washington C. H. Chapter. He was born in France and although for many years a resident of the United States, cherishes the home of his birth and wished to pay tribute to the union of the stars and stripes with the bars of France.

Hardly had he pinned on the tiny button and passed on when a son of Virginia sought the tent. He wished to carry back to the south a Red Cross button from Ohio.

The day before it was an Englishman who bore away the little trophy of unselfish service and so these women who are generously donating their time to recruiting for the Red Cross are finding daily proofs of the broad human interest of the Red Cross.

The Social Committee of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church delightfully entertained the society at the home of Misses Alpha and May Sexton on N. Main street, Wednesday night.

Thirty were present and enjoyed the warm moonlight in out door games. A tempting collation was served.

Miss Sue Williams was chairman of the social session committee.

Much feminine interest is aroused in the coming of Miss Zara Du Pont, nation wide suffrage worker, to this city to address a meeting of women at the home of Mrs. D. S. Craig, Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

Miss Zara Du Pont, first vice president of the Ohio Woman Suffrage Association is a well known and experienced suffrage campaigner. She has been active in the Cleveland Woman Suffrage Party since its organization in 1910, and has done every kind of work for the State Association, from placing the soap box or driving the automobile for a speaker to doing the speaking herself. She worked in 45 counties during the 1914 campaign and in many others since.

Miss Du Pont is a member of the Du Pont family of powder trust fame, her brother, General T. Coleman Du Pont, being president of the Powder Trust for years. Born in the south and reared in luxury, she is absolutely free from race prejudice and has always championed the cause of the poor and oppressed regardless of race color or creed. Her work in social settlements, for hospitals and in various fields of philanthropy, convinced her of the futility of charity and remedial measures generally. She therefore decided to devote herself to fundamental reforms and the first and most important of these in her opinion is votes for women.

Miss Du Pont is a forceful and logical speaker and nobody was ever known to get the better of her in argument.

Mrs. Joseph Hidy delightfully entertained the ladies of the C. W. B. M. of the Christian Church at their regular monthly business meeting, Wednesday afternoon.

Officers for the year were elected as follows: Mrs. Jasper Blackmore, President; Mrs. H. L. Spray, 1st Vice President; Mrs. Van Gundy, 2nd Vice President; Mrs. Nina Miller, Secretary; Mrs. Ethel Irvin, Assistant Secretary; Mrs. Carrie Irvin, Treasurer. A pretty duet was sung by Mrs. Orlan Toops and Mrs. Jasper Blackmore.

A social hour was enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served with Mrs. Mary Michael and Mrs. Sharp assisting hostesses.

The Y. W. F. M. Society was entertained at a most pleasurable Kensington at the home of Mrs. Frank Perrill, Wednesday afternoon. The assisting hostesses were Mesdames Ethel Bishop, Grover Barger, F. Vordenfeldt, Harold Anderson, Boyd, Misses Louise Weaver and Hazel Flowers.

Garden flowers were tastefully employed in decoration and a delicious collation served.

Herding the notable event of the school year the Ohio University has issued handsome invitations, bearing the inscription

1804 1917
The Trustees and Faculty of Ohio University

request the pleasure of your company at the exercises to be held during Commencement Week
June the Seventeenth to the Twenty-first.

President and Mrs. Alston Ellis will hold the President's Reception at their home Tuesday afternoon, June nineteenth, between the hours of three and six o'clock.

Miss Ruth Teeters, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Teeters of this city, will receive her diploma and takes the degree of Science and Education.

Miss Louise Fultz, of Jeffersonville, also graduates, having completed the Normal Course.

Mrs. Mary Bush Coffman entertained on Wednesday night Mrs. Comper, well known Kansas Suffrage worker, who came down from Columbus to complete the cast for the comedy, "How the Vote was Won," which will be presented at the High School Auditorium on June the 15th.

The cast includes Misses Helen Baker, Jane Paul, Margaret Mark, Roberta Stokesbury, Aileen Hess, Lucy Edna Pine, Doris Willis, Elizabeth Snyder, Messrs Walter Sprenger and David D. Parker.

The hospitable home of Mrs. Frank Christopher was thrown open Wednesday afternoon to members of Women's Foreign Missionary Society of Grace M. E. Church.

There was a good attendance, the women enjoying perfect June day together with the last business meeting of the year. Those who had been kept at home during the winter months gladly welcomed the opportunity of attending this all important meeting. Mrs. Alice Adams, President presided. Devotionals in charge of Mrs. Scott Hopkins, with prayer by Mrs. Ed. Pine.

An excellent program was presented under the leadership of Mrs. Haver—a new member and a wide awake. Foreign Missionary woman, full of zeal and earnestness and a wonderful inspiration to the society. She handled the topic "Peace and the Kingdom—World Missions and World Peace" in a very able and touching manner. "There is strange timeliness in the study of the final chapter of 'World Missions and World Peace' when no man knows what a day may bring forth in our relation to the raging conflict about us."

A beautiful piano duet was well rendered by Misses Marion and Margaret Christopher.

A piano solo was played by Miss Marion Christopher.

A leaflet entitled "The Woman Who Gave Herself" was read by Miss Fannie McLean and Mrs. F. M. Kennedy also contributed a leaflet.

The ladies lingered for a social hour during which refreshments were served. Ladies assisting the hostess were Mesdames Jenkins, Adams and Mrs. Ed. Pine.

TIME TO GET THAT NEW DOG LICENSE

All dog licenses issued prior to June 1, 1917, are now void in Washington, and owners of canines must obtain their dog license and tags without delay or run the risk of the dog catcher nabbing up their dogs.

The licenses and tags cost $1 and may be had by applying at the mayor's office.

If dogs are not tagged within a few days the dog catcher will get busy. This time the dog catcher employed has a wagon and will see that animals are tagged or picked up without delay and consigned to the dog pound.

STATE INSPECTOR OF FOODS HERE

Mr. E. F. Van Dyke, state food inspector, spent Wednesday and part of Thursday in this city, taking note of the sanitary conditions existing in the various groceries of Washington.

He reports that he found some of the best groceries of his district of eleven counties in this city. Provision had been made in most of the stores for keeping the stock away from the dust. In only a few cases were conditions really bad.

"This is the season for covering all food, screening all doors and thereby preventing the breeding of house flies," Mr. Van Dyke says.

WHEAT IS HEADING TWO WEEKS LATE

Fayette county wheat is now heading out and is about two weeks later than usual, due to cool weather and cold rains.

However, the cool, wet spring has been very beneficial to the wheat crop, and there is every reason to believe that the crop in Fayette will be a good one.

The heads of the wheat are extra long in many parts of the county, and with favorable weather until harvest, a large yield is expected.

FINED FOR LEAVING MANURE IN ALLEY

The time when a citizen can throw manure heaps in an alley and leave it indefinitely, is no more. The City Board of Health has decided to get busy on this long neglected unsanitary practice, and the first man was arrested and fined on Wednesday. He paid the costs.

But the Board of Health does not intend to stop with the one prosecution. Other affidavits have been prepared and will be served after Friday unless those having manure heaps remove them by Friday night of this week. It is the final warning, and violators of the ordinance prohibiting manure heaps will not get off with the costs after Friday, but will be fined the amount provided by ordinance.

Manure heaps offer ideal breeding places for flies and other disease carriers, to say nothing of the offensive odor arising from the heaps to pollute the surrounding neighborhood, and the Board of Health is determined to eliminate the neglected manure heaps, once and for all.

YOUNG MAN QUITS FRANKFORT TUESDAY

The young man accused of being a slacker, in Frankfort, did not stay in that village long Tuesday, but left about noon on his return to Washington, D. C., where he is holding a government job.

It is understood that the family of the young man is very indignant over the attack made upon him in which he was openly charged with being a "slacker."

The sensation created by the affair has not yet died away.
